

U.S.S. BRINGS AMERICANS HOME

(BY UNITED PRESS)

Tokio, June 1.—Americans in Japan who want to go home for army duty will be able to enlist when the United States transport makes its monthly call at Nagasaki, according to plans today. A number of Americans here have had military experience and expect to get commissions.

JOHN. H. SAVAGE BURIED

Mr. John Henry Savage, one of the oldest citizens of this community, died yesterday of old age, he being about eighty five years old. The funeral took place this afternoon at 2:30 o'clock at the old home place, the officiating minister being Elder Strickland, of Hobgood, of the Primitive Baptist church, of which church the deceased was a member.

Mr. Savage had been married three times, the children surviving from the second marriage being Mrs. Mark Pitt and Mrs. Will Andrews.

His third wife was Miss Nannie Kitchin, sister of the late Capt. Buck Kitchin, who died about 2 years ago. Of this marriage he is survived by a son and a daughter, Mr. Job Savage and Mrs. Horace Davenport.

There are few among the people of this community but could buy one fifty dollar Liberty Bond, with the assistance of the banks, which is promised, and it may mean saving America to democracy.

The words "Liberty Bonds" are spoken glibly by thousands, but only hundreds are giving them the consideration they deserve. Why?

GEORGE MOORE KILLED

The death by accident today was reported by Col. Berry, of the First Tennessee National Guard, of Private George W. Moore, at Knoxville where he was guarding the L. & N. Bridge, which he fell through and was killed.

Mr. Moore was raised in Scotland Neck and made this his home until about seven years ago when he left, and later joined the army since which time little has been heard of him.

He was the son of the late Rufus Moore, who owned a farm about a mile south of town.

One sister, Mrs. Gene Newson survives him, which we believe is the only near relative.

HOTEL PROPRIETOR GIVEN UP BY DOCTORS

"In conversation with a representative of your Company today, I could not help expressing my feeling of gratitude at the good your medicine had done for me. For three long years I suffered untold agony with what they said was a severe case of Rheumatism. After the best Doctors had exhausted their knowledge in regard to my case, I consulted an Osteopath and after an examination he said the hip joint had become irritated and it would take a long time to cure it, if it could be cured at all. I felt so discouraged over my condition, for I had spent hundreds of dollars in the vain pursuit of ease, for my suffering was terrible. Hearing of the good effects that Mrs. Joe Person Remedy had on others, I decided to try it. I bought a dozen bottles, thinking that if I took it at all, I would go at it right. And wonderfully, yes it is wonderful, the cure it made of me, as my friends can testify. I began to improve on the first bottle and by the time I had finished the course I was a well, strong man and have had no symptoms of the disease since.

I would feel that I had neglected my duty to my fellowman if I did not tell them of my wonderful cure and I advise any sufferer to give Mrs. Joe Person's Remedy a trial.

THE FLOWER NYMPH'S SURPRISE

SYNOPSIS

Scene I—Early one morning in Flower-Land, while wandering about waiting for Aurora, Queen of the Dawn, her Flower Nymphs are frightened by a sudden encounter with a band of Imps. Confusion ensues until Aurora appears. The Imps prove to be princes bearing a message to Aurora and her court from the Sun-King inviting them to a feast at Sunlight Palace.

The Imps assert that Apollo is tired of sleeping, and longs to be released from behind the "Silvery Bars of Dawn" where he is imprisoned. All hasten to Apollo.

Scene II—Aurora and her attendants accompanied by the princes, open the "Silvery Bars of the Dawn", and Apollo appears. After the meeting of the God and Goddess, amid showers of flowers from the Nymphs and sunshine from the Princess, all join in the Chorus Finale "Oh, then to the feast in the Palace of Sunlight."

Scene with Tableau.

HAS GOOD OPINION OF CHAMBERLAIN'S TABLET'S

"Chamberlain's Tablets are a wonder. I never sold anything that beat them," writes F. B. Tressy, Richmond, Ky. When troubled with indigestion or constipation give them a trial.

GRANDMA USED SAGE TEA TO DARKEN HAIR

She mixed Sulphur with it to Restore Color, Gloss, Youthfulness.

Common garden sage brewed into a heavy tea with sulphur added, will turn gray, streaked and faded hair beautifully dark and luxuriant. Just a few applications will prove a revelation if your hair is fading, streaked or gray. Mixing the Sage Tea and Sulphur recipe at home, though, is troublesome. An easier way is to get a 50-cent bottle of Wyeth's Sage and Sulphur Compound at any drug store all ready for use. This is the old time recipe improved by the addition of other ingredients.

While wispy, gray, faded hair is not sinful, we all desire to retain our youthful appearance and attractiveness. By darkening your hair with Wyeth's Sage and Sulphur Compound, no one can tell, because it does it so naturally, so evenly. You just dampen a sponge or soft brush with it and draw this through your hair, taking one small strand at a time; by morning all gray hairs have disappeared, and, after another application or two, your hair becomes beautifully dark, glossy, soft and luxuriant.

This preparation is a delightful toilet requisite and is not intended for the cure, mitigation or prevention of disease.

BEST REMEDY FOR WHOOPING COUGH

"Last winter when my little boy had the whooping cough I gave him Chamberlain's Cough Remedy," writes Mrs. J. B. Roberts, East St. Louis, Ill. "I kept his cough loose and relieved him of those dreadful coughing spells. It is the only cough medicine I keep in the house because I have the most confidence in it". This remedy is also good
